HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA

BILL C-443

An Act to recognize the Republic of Macedonia

FIRST READING, MAY 16, 2007

Mr. TEMELKOVSKI

SUMMARY

This enactment provides for formal recognition by the Government of Canada of the Republic of Macedonia.

Also available on the Parliament of Canada Web Site at the following address:
http://www.parl.gc.ca

Preamble

WHEREAS Macedonia declared its inde-pendence from Yugoslavia in September 1991;
WHEREAS the Government of Canada extended formal recognition to the independent nation as the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia on July 3, 1996;
WHEREAS a number of countries with which Canada has close political and economic ties, including Russia, the People’s Republic of China and the United States of America, have recognized this nation under its constitutional name, the Republic of Macedonia;
AND WHEREAS the Government of Canada now wishes to accept this nation’s constitutional name, the Republic of Macedonia, and to continue, under that name, its recognition of the nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Commons, enacts as follows:

SHORT TITLE

Short title 1. This Act may be cited as the Republic of Macedonia Recognition Act.

ACCEPTANCE

Acceptance 2. The Government of Canada accepts the constitutional name of the nation previously recognized as the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, and continues, under the name “the Republic of Macedonia”, the recognition of this nation.

VTORIOT MAKEDONSKI ILINDEN - AVGUST 2-ri, 1903

KRU[ EVSKI OT MANI F EST

The Manifesto of the Krushevo Republic

Fellow countrymen and dear neighbours! We, your perennial neighbours, friends and acquaintances from beautiful Krushevo and its pretty villages, regardless of faith, nationality, sex or conviction, not being able to endure any more the tyranny of bloodthirsty murtats who hunger for human flesh, who would like to lead both you and us to slaughter, to reduce both you and us to poverty, and to make us fight for our honour.

You know very well that we are not evil and you understand that it is trouble that made us rise up our rifles and defend our honour. We are fighting and will fight against murtats, against plunderers, against oppressors and tyrants.

We are not tyrants of our own land that has given birth to us, we are not robbers and plunderers, but revolutionaries sworn to die for justice and freedom; we rebel against tyranny and slavery; we are fighting and will fight against murtats, against robbers, against oppressors and plunderers, against beheaders of our honour and our faith and against those who benefit from our sweat and exploit our labour.

Do not be afraid of us and of our villages... we shall not harm anyone. Not only do we consider you as our brothers, but we also feel sorry for you, our dear and wealthy land of Macedonia into a wasteland, that we might begin living like our forefathers and great-grandfathers we have always lived and would like it to remain the same forever.

We have not risen against you - it would be shameful for us to do so; we have not risen against the peaceful diligent and honest Turkish people who, like ourselves, earn their living through sweat full of blood - they are our brothers with whom we have always lived and would like to live again; we have not risen to slaughter and plunder, to set fire and steal - we have had enough of countless derebeyis pillaging and plundering our poor and bloodthirsty murtats.
for you as our brothers, since we understand that you are slaves like ourselves, slaves of the Sultan and of his beys, effendis and pashas, slaves of the rich and powerful, slaves of tyrants and oppressors, who have set fire to the empire from all four sides and have made us rise up for justice, for freedom and for human life.

We invite you, too, to join us in our struggle for justice, freedom and human life! Come, Moslem brothers, let us together go against your and our enemies! Come under the banner of "Autonomous Macedonia"! Macedonia is the mother of us all and she calls on us for help. Let us break the chains of slavery, free ourselves from suffering and pain, and dry the rivers of blood and tears! Join us, brothers, let us fuse our souls and hearts and save ourselves, so that we and our children and our children's children might live in peace, work calmly and make progress!

Dear neighbours! We understand that you as Turks, Arnauts and Moslems might think that the empire is yours and that you are not slaves since there is no cross on the imperial flag but a star and a crescent. You will soon see and understand that this is not so and that you are wrong. Nevertheless, if you honour does not allow you to join us and declare yourselves against the Sultan's tyranny, we, your brothers in suffering and of the same homeland, shall do you no harm and shall not hate you. We will fight alone both for you and us, and if necessary, we will fight to the last man under the banner for our and your freedom, for our and your justice. "Freedom or Death" is written on our foreheads and on our bloodstained banner.

We have already raised that banner and there is no way back. If you consider us as your brothers, too, if you wish us well, if you intend to live with us again as you have lived up to now, and if you are faithful and worthy sons of our mother Macedonia, you could help us in one way at least - and it would be a great help indeed - do not make partners of the enemy, do not raise guns against us and do not oppress the Christian villages.

May God bless our holy struggle for justice and freedom! Long live the fighters for freedom and all honest and good Macedonian sons!

Hurrah! For "Autonomous Macedonia!"

Nikola Karev, President of the first Macedonian Republic in 1903

признаат тоа или не, тоа е однеава преку игорантски кон такви влада или влада. Тоа е истинското. Ако не сме негови јавности, некој коа да не се интересира и да се однесуваат игорантски кон фактите и истините. Ние не треба да го пречиме на таа позиција, застапениот интерес е посилен од истините за Македонија, а нивните намерки секогаш достижат да не стимулат, колку и да изгледаат небезбедни и со добри намери.

No кој ќе ни помогне ако самите на себе не се веруват, не веруват во сопствените свои способности, во својата идина. И не само како дека арата ни вјави и удри идеи за живот по Македонијата. Нема да помине. Колку позбрувам дека во алтернативата само една идеја за која постои и ќе имаше и го има своја аргументи, колку не одведе кон успех. Нема да има реабилитација за нас во исто време, таа безмилосно не ќе има доколку не ги зачуваме темелните вредности на нашето Второ Второ Второ, како деколку ќе даваме одговорно пред Историјата да го дадем својот придонес.

BRING THE KIDS AT THE ILINDEN PICNIC

Don’t forget to bring your kids or grandkids at the Ilinden picnic, because for them we have entertainment for the whole day. Besides the slides and swings at the playground, there will be inflatable bouncing castle, as can be seen on the pictures. At the same time, the kids will be able to compete and play in target hitting with soccer, handball and basketball. All the kids will have a chance to draw and paint their own pictures, for which the winners can win prizes. If there is adequate interest, there will organized races for different age groups.

Bring your younger off springs to the Ilinden picnic so they can be inspired with Macedonian national spirit, to meet other young Macedonians and to be proud of their Macedonian roots.

The older generations have a national duty through this activities to promote and foster Macedonianism...

See you all at the picnic.

Macedonia Dispute Goes to the House

A Liberal MP puts forth a motion to recognize the Republic of Macedonia which stirs ire within the Liberal caucus and the Greek community.

By Lee Berthiaume

May 23rd, 2007

A private member’s bill calling on the Canadian government to officially recognize the Republic of Macedonia was tabled in the House of Commons last week. Liberal MP John Cannis, Toronto-area parliamentarian who was born in what is now known as the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia (FYROM), introduced the bill in the House of Commons last Wednesday.

The naming dispute carries significant historical baggage that dates back centuries, but re-emerged as a current issue following the break up of Yugoslavia in the 1990s when several independent states emerged. One of those wanted to call itself the Republic of Macedonia. But Greece has vehemently opposed the idea, saying it implies ownership of a Greek province of the same name.

In introducing his bill, Mr. Temelkovski noted that numerous countries, including the United States, China and Russia, have since recognized the state as the Republic of Macedonia.

Speaking to Embassy last Thursday, Mr. Temelkovski said his bill was prompted by lobbying on the part of the Macedonian community, which includes about 1,000 members in his riding.

He did not know what the chances of his bill being adopted were, but acknowledged objections within the Liberal caucus and the Greek community.

“We haven’t had any discussions about it and I don’t think we need any discussions,” Mr. Temelkovski said when asked if the Liberal party had discussed the bill. “It’s just an advisory motion.”

However, he blamed the Greek lobby for Canada’s continued decision not to call the country by its constitutional name.

“I think it’s clear that the fact Canada has not recognized Macedonia under its constitutional name is all due to the Greek lobby,” he said. “It’s not up to Greece to tell Macedonia what it can call itself. It’s a matter of self-identity. ‘They’ve got to forget it. I can’t go naming you Peter. My name is Lui and you can call me whatever you like, but my name is Lui.”’

Mr. Temelkovski, who moved to Canada with his family in 1968, said Greece believes recognizing the country as the Republic of Macedonia is an attempt by the Slavic country to rob it of territory, but he said that isn’t the case. The Macedonian Embassy in Ottawa referred questions to Mr. Temelkovski’s office.

Deepak Obhrai, parliamentary secretary to Foreign Affairs Minister Peter MacKay, said the bill has just been introduced and it is too early to determine who the parties in the government will take.

‘Precedent Has Been Set’

Lui Temelkovski greets Achimandrite Nikolod Tsarknias, a Macedonian Orthodox priest from Greece, who is also a great defender of Macedonian religious and human rights in Greece and worldwide and for that has been jailed numerous times by the Greek authorities.

I was dismayed by the interpretations of the two Greek-Canadian MPs and the Greek Embassy’s press counsellor regarding the Greek objections of the name Republic of Macedonia (Re: “Macedonia Dispute Goes to the House,” Lee@embassymag.ca) which stirs ire within the Liberal caucus and the Greek community.

The debate regarding the Greek objections is not up to Greece to tell the country of Macedonia that they “have to sort out the issue before we are able to do it here and voice it here.” In fact, keeping in mind the inalienable right of every country and people to choose its name, this is all a non-issue since The Republic of Macedonia and the Macedonians themselves have no problem with their national and historic name.

Perhaps the Greek officials can ask themselves why then they are using the name “Macedonia” for their northern province, since that too is a part of the whole region called Macedonia. Following their logic, they should tell the country of Bulgaria not to use the name since France has a province by the same name, and the Americans should not call their country by that name since it is a part of a continent.

Lui Temelkovski among Macedonian Orthodox priests

For several weeks now, Liberal MP Lui Temelkovski has faced mounting criticism for having introduced a private member’s bill in the House of Commons to recognize Macedonia’s constitutional name. The first to challenge Lui were two of his own colleagues within the Liberal Party, both Greek-born MPs representing Scarborough-area ridings.

Now, disapproval has reached Lui’s own riding of Oak Ridges–Markham.

In a recent article entitled “Whose interests is Temelkovski serving,” Lui’s potential Conservative rival in Oak Ridges–Markham accused the Liberal MP of “serving the interest of a relatively small group of his constituents,” also warning that Lui’s latest bill “will likely upset constituents,” also warning that Lui’s latest bill “will likely upset the Greek-Canadian community.”

Visit http://keyes.ca/journal/

Donate to help ensure that Lui is ready to take on these counterparts, he has demonstrated time and again that he is ready to take on these issues on behalf of the Macedonian-Canadian community.

This is why, with the possibility of federal elections always looming, it is so important for Canadian-Macedonians to contribute financially to Lui’s election campaign. Without sufficient funding, it is very difficult for Lui and his team to reach out to constituents and build the kind of support that wins an election. More importantly, without proud Macedonian-Canadians like Lui in Ottawa, the Macedonian community risks losing the strong representation it has enjoyed so far.

To donate to Lui’s campaign, send personal cheques to:

Liberal MP Lui Temelkovski tables motion to recognize the “Republic of Macedonia”

Liberal MP Lui Temelkovski (Oak Ridges–Markham) recently introduced a private member’s bill urging Canada to officially recognize the constitutional name of the “Republic of Macedonia.”

Given the tremendous opposition this bill has already received from Greek constituents and MPs alike, Lui needs our support for it to succeed.

First, write or speak to your respective MPs and encourage them to support Lui’s latest motion. Inform them that more than 100 countries have already recognized Macedonia’s constitutional name, including the United States, Russia, and China. Advise them that Macedonia is well on its way to NATO and the EU, and that it has no ambitions on Greece’s northern province of “Macedonia.” Remind them that it is a fundamental right of any sovereign, democratic, peace-loving state to choose its own name, and that there are other countries (e.g. the United Kingdom) which do not feel threatened by other jurisdictions with similar names (e.g. “British Columbia” or “New England”). Letters and other forms of communication will strengthen Lui’s position when he approaches fellow MPs to vote in favour of his proposal.

Lui especially deserves the financial support to enable him to continue serving the interests of Macedonian-Canadians, which has also included such things as: setting up a meeting between former Prime Minister Paul Martin and the Canadian Macedonian Human Rights Movement; challenging the opinions of a group of Greek nationalists opposed to his pro-Macedonian activities; and helping Macedonian-Canadians in their individual dealings with the federal government.

Financial contributions are particularly important in Lui’s case because his riding is so large, and because it is illegal for Lui to contribute to his own re-election more than the maximum contribution allowed to each Canadian ($1,100). For Macedonians who wish to help Lui, donors will receive a high percentage of their contributions back in tax refunds: 75% for donations of up to $400; 50% for donations between $401 and $750; and 33.3% for donations of $751 to $1,100. Cash contributions over $20 are illegal, as are business donations. So personal cheques should be made out to:

The Oak Ridges–Markham Federal Liberal Association

By supporting Lui, we help ensure a strong voice in Parliament for Canada’s Macedonian community!

LAUREN KARATANEVSKI MADE MACEDONIAN SPORT HISTORY

Lauren Karatanevski will go in sports history books as the first Macedonian representative at any International diving championship. In Women’s 1m Springboard Lauren finished 32nd with 179.25 points, while on the 3m Springboard she placed 34th with 195.40 points. She was born July 7, 1984 in Toronto, Canada. Her father Risto was born in Macedonia and played semi-professional soccer, while her mother Debbie received her honours specialist degree in physical education. Lauren’s younger sister Katleyn is an honours specialist degree in physical education.

His father Risto was born in Macedonia and played semi-professional soccer, while his mother Debbie received her honours specialist degree in physical education. Lauren’s younger sister Katleyn is an honours specialist degree in physical education. She was a gymnast and later a figure skater.

Lauren graduated in June 2003 from Lawrence Park Collegiate Institute in Toronto where she was a magnificent all-around athlete on the high school and club team level. She competed in swimming for five years, gymnastics for nine years, volleyball for five years, diving seven years and synchronized swimming two years. Lauren served as captain of her high school swimming and volleyball teams and her club diving team and was a member of the city championship swimming team.

A winner of Lawrence Park sportsmanship award for outstanding leadership and participation in student athletic programs, Lauren became Ontario Provincial champion in one-meter and three-meter springboard diving in 2002 and third in Canada in 2002 age group nationals on three-meter springboard. At the Canada Senior Nationals in 2003 on one-meter board she finished seventh as well as winner of various international diving meets.

Currently Lauren is a Exercise Physiology major at the University of North Carolina (UNC) in Chapel Hill, USA, where she competes in the high-powered and very competitive ACC Conference. At the 2003-2004 conference championships (her freshman year in school) she was the top finisher at UNC, placing seventh on the one-meter board and ninth on the three-meter board. By 2004-2005 Lauren competed in the Preliminary competition. The winner was China’s Zi He with 195.40 points. Again, a Chinese winner was the 3m Springboard and in a field of 37 divers from all over the World, Lauren finished 32nd with 179.25 points, ahead of divers from Hungary, Macau, Croatia, Venezuela and Switzerland.

Two days later Lauren competed in the Preliminaries on the 3m Springboard and in a field of 40 divers placed 34th with 195.40 points. Again, a Chinese diver placed first with 356.10 points. Lauren points, ahead of divers from Hungary, Macau, Croatia, Venezuela and Switzerland. She was the top finisher at UNC, placing seventh on the one-meter board and ninth on the three-meter board. Can I speak my language?
Imagine if you could lose your job, be imprisoned, or even shot just for speaking a different language in public or declaring your ethnic identity. Not possible? Think again. Macedonians in the Balkans continue to face this kind of persecution every day and it is going to continue until enough voices around the world demand it to stop. Freedom should not be a privilege.

The Work of MHRMI
Throughout its history MHRMI has worked to achieve its goals through two means: education and advocacy. We strive to bring the plight of the Macedonians to the attention of the world.

Targeted Attendance at International Human Rights Conferences
Meetings with governments, key international, policy-makers and non-governmental organizations
Reporting and publishing on the human rights abuses suffered by Macedonians

Only by appealing to those who have the power to effect change can we reasonably expect the world to begin righting the wrongs inflicted upon Macedonians for generations.

We envision a world free from oppression.

Your silence is not an option.

Freedom of Speech • Freedom of Religion • Freedom of Assembly
We take these liberties for granted every day, Macedonians around the world wish they could.
